a junior accounting/computer management major. He is president of Tassels Honorary Society; vice president of the Student Accounting Society; and a member of Delta Mu Delta honorary business fraternity, and Kappa Mu Epsilon honorary mathematics fraternity.

Englebright, a 1987 graduate of Paris High School, is a sophomore majoring in junior high education. She is vice president of the Junior High Majors Club and former secretary of the Association of Honors Students. She is also on the EIU track team.

Schmitz, a 1987 graduate of Charleston High School, is a sophomore majoring in history. He is treasurer of the Association of Honors Students and a member of Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity.

Gainey, a 1986 graduate of Bergan High School, is a senior majoring in junior high education. She is president of the Junior High Majors Club and secretary of Pi Delta Phi French honors society. She is also social chairperson for the Association of Honors Students and a member of the University Board.

The marshals serve as official ushers for various college occasions, particularly for commencement exercises. During the commencement, they wore white academic robes, carried batons decorated with EIU's colors of blue and gray and assisted with the processional and recessional.
